RACING LAW FOR CANADA

COMMONS PASSES MEASURE DESIRED BY CANADIAN JOCKEY CLUBS.

Bookmaking and All Forms of Betting Legalized or Race Tracks During Two Seven-Days Meetings in Each Year-No Further Interference.

Toronto, Ont., April 16.—The status of racing in Canada for the next generation was definitely established in legal form when the House of Commons last night passed without opposition and without debate the bill that had been offered by the racing interests. In its amended form it was fathered by I. II. Miller himself, who explained that it was the best that could be done, and that there would be no more effort to interfere with racing in future years unless this law proved a failure. It was seconded by Mr. McColl, who had originally offered it as a substitute for the drastic measure which Mr. Miller introduced in the House several months ago, and which was rejected last week.

The new act, which was sent on to the Senate and which will become law as soon as the fomalities are complied with, recognizes bookmaking, poolselling or any form of betting as legal when done on an incorporated race course on the races then taking place. It makes the penalties for handbooking severer and prohibits the use of the streets or public places for betting. Meetings for runners are restricted to seven days and for trotters to three days, and not more than two meetings a year shall be held. These privileges will not apply to any new tracks established more than three miles from a Canadian city of 15,000 inhabitants. This is intended to prevent new tracks being operated on the Canadian border, but those in existence are protected. The sale of information to bookmakers on the track and the collection of fees for such information are permitted, but not the sale of information for use elsewhere. The publication of tips is not forbidden, but they cannot be advertised for sale nor can information be published that is intended for use in the business of bookmaking.

CAMDEN HANDICAP PROBABILITIES.

CAMDEN HANDICAP PROBABILITIES.

Lexington, Ky., April 16.—Secretary William H. Shelley's adjustment of weights for the Camden Handicap appears to have general approval, and it is expected that at least ten of the twenty-eight eligibles will go to the post in the race at one mile and an eighth May 3. Waldo, Joe Morris, Eye White, Fighting Bob, Donau, Colinet, John Furlong, Sager, Boola Boola, Ethel D., Don Antonio, Markie M. and Nannette or Fereno are being figured as likely starters. C. L. Harrison, in a letter to Gus Eastin, said that Waldo would be shipped here from Lonisville along with a couple of two-year-olds, and would run in the Camden. Since that letter was written jockey Vincent Powers has been engaged to ride Waldo in the Camden and in the Kentucky Derby. Joe Morris has been working well at the local track and will go to the post if trainer Jack Baker finds that he is ready on the day of the race. John Furlong has missed a couple of trials on account of rain and this may cause trainer Walter Grater to elect to await the Kentucky Derby as the race for the debut of the Wadsworth gelding. There is a possibility, too, that John Furlong will change hands. "Camada Jack" Atkin was here this week inspected the gelding, expressed a liking for bim and requested a price from owner James C. Rogers. Atkin is acting for a Canadian gentleman, supposedly R. J. Mackenzie. Colinet has, according to reports from Idle Hour Farm, been working satisfactorily for trainer Cliff Hammond. Jockey Dick Scoville arrived here this week from his home at Coffeyville, Kan., and is now exercising the Bradley candidate. Boola Boola can be tabbed as certain to carry the colors of Johnson N. Camden, though trainer Jack Keen has no high opinion of the son of Ben Brush. Ethel D. is going well for the colored trainer, June Collins, and she is a filly that is well worth remembering. Markie M., from the stable of J. C. Milam, has not lived up to the expectations of his owner and trainer, but he is hopeful. Good reports come from Lonisville c

JACKSONVILLE MEETING COMES TO END.

Jacksonville MEETING COMES TO END.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 16.—When taps sounded calling the horses to the post for the closing race at Moncreif Park this afternoon, cheers broke forth from the grandstand and betting ring. The attendance during the past week or ten days has been slim, none but the hardened regulars remaining over to the finish. The program for the closing day was made up of seven races and the conditions of a majority of them were framed to suit non-winners. In only one race, the fourth, was there any pretension to class, and this event proved an easy victory for Ethon, which ran six furlongs in 1:112, equaling the track record that this same horse established a few days ago. Ethon, Colonel Ashmeade and Jack Right scored as favorites.

A special made up of twenty-one horse cars will leave for Louisville, while several stables will ship to Pimilico.

heave for Louisville, while several stables will ship to Pimilco.

After Great Jubilee's bad showing in the closing race, his rider, E. Griffin, was called into the stand. The judges were not convinced that it was the boy's fault and nothing was done in the matter. Previous to the races a sale of borses in training was held and the following were sold: Jane Swift, to C. F. Clark, 8725; Catroke, to I. B. Fitzgerald, $500; Bannock Bob, to I. B. Fitzgerald, $500; Agreement, to T. W. Filynn, $103; To-To-Yo-Yo, to O. J. Pritkett, $120; Silverado, to J. F. White, $90.

At a meeting of the Southern Jockey Club stewards held this morning, the suspension of jockey other was sustained and the purse won by Barnsdale was gwarded to H. McCarren, whose Camel finished second to that horse recently.

La Favette and several other horses were shipped to Delorimier Park, Montreal, this morning.

SEMPROLUS TAKES THE CANARSIE.

R. F. Carman and George Odom Score Doubles at Aqueduct-Another Ten-Thousand Crowd Out.

New York, April 16.—R. F. Carman's Semprolus was winner of the Canarsie Stakes, today's Aqueduct feature for two-year-olds. The Carman colors were also successful in the other two-year-old race when Horizon won the dash for fillies. The Canarsie brought an excellent field of youngsters together and the winner is undoubtedly a good one. The other feature, the Rockaway, Selling Stakes, resulted in a stirring finish, in which Prince Gal, Pajaroita, Madman and Rialto finished so closely lapped that difficulty was had in placing them, and many were of the opinion that Madman finished second. Like the Carman stable, Odom made it two for the day when at the end of the card his filly, Follie Levy, duplicated the success of Prince Gal in the Rockaway.

The tabulated history of the Rockaway Stakes is Run at seven turiongs from 1900 to 1903 inclusive. It is early in the season to predict good two-year-olds, but on his performance this afternoon Semprolus is sure to make his way if not too ambitiously placed. He was outpaced in the early stages of the Canarsie by Frank Mullens, Babbler, the Belmont representative, and Dartworth, a Stalwart coli that bore the colors of James Butler. When the real pinch came the Carman colt drew away in real racehorse fashion and achieved victory in impressive style.

Horizon, the other two-year-old winner, is a daughter of Hastings and Fond Hopes, and her most dangerous opponent was Madeap, also Nursery bred, being a daughter of Rock Sand and Lady Madge. She was the Belmont hope, but could only finish an indifferent second to the filly that had been sent to the yearling sales.

It is possible that Bedwell's Pajaroita would have beaten Prince Gal in the Rockaway had Taplin been a little less anxious. He rushed the western sprinter along at a clip that left him little for the stretch drive, and though he hung on well he was nosed out in the final stride.

Three of the races went to the favorites, and there was not a winner that was not well backed, though the defeat of Madeap in the first race was something of a setback. Ardri, winner of the second by inches from Keep Moving, was a first choice, and then came Semprolus, backed from 15 to 8. Prince Gal and Besom were both favorites,

For the second day of the season fully 10,000 turned out and it was an excellent day's sport, though a cold wind and cloudy skies made conditions unpleasant.

Among the notables present was Richard Croker.

DAY OF UPSETS AT OAKLAND.

San Francisco, Cal., April 16.—There were several upsets at Oakland today and the followers of favorites fared badly. The most unsatisfactory race was the closing dash. Likely Dieudonne ruled favorite, with Thistle Belle a heavily-backed second choice. At the half-mile post, Coburn, on Jim Gaffney, cut across and almost knocked Thistle Belle down. Near the finish Selden, on Kid North, crowded Likely Dieudonne, forcing Williams to pull up. Jim Gaffney won from Kid North and Banorella. The judges had all the jockeys concerned before them and suspended Coburn for a week for rough riding. Calopus, favorite for the fifth, was practically left at the post and failed to cut any figure, Burnell, an outsider, proving the winner. Bishop W, was favorite in the fourth, but Raleigh led al the way. No Quarter had a competent rider up for a change in the first race and finally won, beating Titus II.

The stewards have refused the entry of Creston for inconsistent running, and reserved further action pending the result of continued investigation of the race won by Captain John yesterday. Anderson, who rode Galvesca yesterday, said the mare appeared to stagger and he pulled her up. She was in good condition last night and today.

The following horses were sold in the paddock today: Duke of Milan, F. B. Brown, $625; Sweet Basil, Johnson & Gray, $750; Hex. Charles Horning, $400; Beda, J. A. Bell of the Raisin City Stable, $10; Old Settler, H. Tobin, W. T. Anderson bid in Argonaut for William Cahill at $750. None of James McManus' horses that have raced here will be shipped east. Trainer Steve Judge will likely take some of them for a campaign through "the bushes" during the summer. The consistent mare, Rosslare, has gone wrong and will be fired and turned out for the summer. NAMES OF THIS YEAR'S TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

In this issue Daily Racing Form begins publication of the names and breeding of all the registered two-year-olds of this year, together with the breeding of those that have not yet been named. The names are alphabetically arranged and publication of the list will be continued from time to time until all names registered with the Jockey Club have been made public. Comparatively few of these juveniles have as yet raced and the issues containing these names will prove of great value for preservation and future reference. The first installment is as follows:

IMPORTANT ENGLISH RACING AT HAND.

IMPORTANT ENGLISH RACING AT HAND.

Outside of the Lincoln and Liverpool spring meetings no racing of prime importance has as yet taken place in Eugland, but it will be different this week. Besides meetings of minor rank such annual fixtures as the Epsom spring meeting and the Sandown ark April meeting will be passed into turf history, with some of the noted races of the year to be disposed of. The meeting at Epsom begins Tuesday with the Great Metropolitan Handicap as the chief feature of the day. This is a dash of two and a quarter miles, aid is one of the races Parole captured in his brilliant campaign in England. No American horses are engaged. Last year it was won by J. A. de Rothschild's four-year-old filly, Laughing Mirror, carrying the light impost of eighty-four pounds. This year size is again an eligibie, but is handicapped at 110 pounds. Other proved stayers of note engaged are Lagos and Submit, at 126 pounds each; Admiral Togo, 120 pounds; Specifical and Bridge of Earn. 117 each, and so on down to the three-year-old. Jack's Green, at ninety-two. The impression in England lass been that the race will fall to one of the highweights this year, but it is always an event of obubtful outcome. The Great Surrey Handicap, at five-eighths of a mile, will be run the same afternoon. It is usually contested by a select band of the fastest sprinters in England. Last year Hallaton, with 122 pounds up, was the winner. He is a candidate again, but is handicapped at 132 pounds. The topweight is Americus Girl, at 136. Mr. Whitney's Delirium, 126 pounds, and Brobbin, 116, Mr. O. Maddea's Coronal, 99, and Mr. Belmont's Bondoir. 91, are the American horses engaged. Jack Shipe, 123, Glenesky, 132, Galleot, 122, Master Hopson, 121. Prester Jack, 119, Sun Angel, 102, Photime, 101, Sunshot, 108, and Demosthenes are other very fast borses in this event.

The City and Suburban Handicap will be run Wednesday. It is a dash of a mile and a quarter, and now that Sir Martin has been declared out, it is deemed likely to fall to King

The Sandown Park meeting begins Thursday afternoon and continues three days. The first two days are devoted to flat racing and the last day to hurdle racing and steeplechasing. The Esher Cup, at a mile and sixty vards, and usually of the value of about $4,500 to the winner, is the main feature of the first day. Last year it was won by Sealed Orders, with Jackson second and Mr. Whitney's Perseus third. The Sandown Park Produce Stakes, at five furlougs, for two-year-olds, is the big race of the second day. Last year it was of the net value of $5,695, and was won by Wild Gorse. The $5,000 Tuder Plate, for three-year-olds, at a mile and sixty yards, will be run the same day. It was won by Carrousel last year, with Fop second and Mr. Kepne's Esperanto third. Altogether it will be a busy and important week for admirers of racing in England.

Winner—B. c, by The Friar—Del-Hart (trained by R. C. Benson).

Went to post at 2:50. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving. DEL

FR1AR rushed to the front on the far turn and kept increasing his advantage in the homestretch. ROSE BURG III. followed the pacemaker closely, but tired at the end and just managed to outstay the fast com ing ORACLE. The latter broke well, but was pulled up, then closed a big gap. DELENA, a bad post actor, was as good as left and carried wide on the far turn. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Scratched—(88763)Golden Ruby, 165.

Overweights—Del Friar, 1\(\frac{1}{2} \) pounds; Kathryne Gardner, 1; Chess, 5.

Winner—Br. g. by Sempronius—Kindina (trained by D. Hill).

Went to post at 3:12. At post 8 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. HAROLD HALL, off forwardly, followed the early pacemakers closely and, finishing gamely under punishment, got up in the final stride. SPLENPIDA was much used at the post in repeatedly breaking through the barrier, but ran well and came again after dropping back on the far turn. BOSERRIAN went to the front with a rush after entering the homestretch, but quit in the last sixteenth. JOE GAITENS was as good as left. The winner was entered for $400, no bid.

Scratched—88709 Anna L. Daley, 105; 89062*St. Jeanne, 110; (89000)Begone, 112; 88866 Jack Nunnally, 118; (88891)Kenmare Queen, 98; 88997 Sandy Hill, 105; 89001 Night Mist, 106; 89001 Warden, 105.

Winner—B. g, by The Bard—Fluid (trained by W. Perkins).

Went to post at 4:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same. BONNIE BARD, off forwardly, followed the leaders under slight restraint and, moving up while rounding the far turn, hung on gamely in the final drive. RIO GRANDE, carried wide on the turn, outgamed CER-EMONIUS in the stretch drive. The latter made a game effort after entering the homestretch, but tired in the last furlong. GREAT JUBILEE showed a flash of speed on the backstretch, but quit in the last scratched—88933*Critic, 98; 88950*Morpeth, 92.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Waldo has not had a sick hour since he entered his stall at Churchill Downs last fall, nor has he missed a feed.

Scrimnage, which carried James R. Keene's colors at Aqueduct on opening day, was the first of the get of Wild Mint to appear under colors.

Of the winners on opening day at Aqueduct, two were trained at Gravesend, two came from Oakland, one from Jacksonville and one from Juarez.

Zeus, which won at Aqueduct Friday is the first of the get of the famous French stallion, Adam, to win in this country. He sold as a yearling for $1.500.

The stables of H. G. Bedwell, James McLaughlin, P. T. Chinn, J. W. Schorr, R. J. Mackenzie and John Hynes make up most of the horses that are quartered at the Aqueduct track.

Cross-country rider John Kermath sprained an ankle badly while playing ball recently. He was to have ridden the horses trained by Silas Veitch at Pimlico, but owing to his injury another jockey will have to be secured for the Maryland meeting.

The voteran horsonan W. P. Brand, is suffering.

The veteran horseman, W. P. Burch, is suffering from appendicitis at Baltimore. An operation that was necessary was successfully performed. Eighteen stalls have been reserved for the Burch stable at Sheepshead Bay. The horses will be shipped to the Long Island track at the close of the Pimlico meeting May 7.

GOSSIP OF KENTUCKY TRACKS.

Lonisville, Ky., April 16.—Besides the Derby candidate, Ben K. Sleet, the horses in the string of Edward Corrigan, now quartered at Churchill Downs, include Flora Riley. Chenault, Elizabeth Daly, Jim Halpin and other two-year-olds. Elizabeth Daly, will be a starter in the Debutante Stakes, while Chenault is eligible to the Bashford Manor Stakes and other juvenile events. Mr. Corrigan's Kentucky Derby candidate, Ben K. Sleet, has developed into a good-looking three-year-old. His condition is as far advanced as the local-trained eligibles, with the exception. perhaps, of The Fad and Topland. He is a son of Knight of the Thistle, a horse that once sold at auction in this country for $30,000, and his dam, Golden Rod II., produced Silverdale, winner of the St. Louis Derby of 1901 and many other races.

Mr. Corrigan won the Kentucky Derby with the fumous Riley just twenty years ago, in 1890, and twice afterwards was barely beaten in the big event. In 1897 his colt Huron ran George J. Long's Azra to a nose in the race, and in 1899 Corsine, owned by him, figured in a close contest with Manuel. His brother, Patrick Corrigan, tried to win the Derby of 1896 with Free Knight, but that half-brother to the mighty Freeland stacked up against two great horses in Ben Ali and Blue Wing, and third was the best be could do.

Charles L. Harrison, of New York, who owns Waldo, is coming to the Derby from New York in a special car with several prominent casterners as guests. Mr. Harrison informed Colonel Winn when he was in New York recently that he intended to race every season in Kentucky. He feels that he owes it to the home of the thoroughbred to do.

Among the turfmen who will come here with Mr. Straus on Derby day is Alex Labold, who won the Derby of 1887 with Montrose.

From now on the bulk of the arrivals at Louis-ville will stable at Douglas Park, in accordance with Secretary Lyman H. Davis' orders. Some few stables are still vacant at Churchill Downs, but are in each ener, and always enter liberally in the New Louisville Jockey Club's stakes.

Considerable rain fell this week and the track was muddy again. Fighting Bob worked five-eighths in 1:05, which was considered extra good. Trainer George Ham worked Colloquy a half in 52, and followed it up by sending Donau a mile, the last half of which was worked in 54. Donau is training especially well.

Jockeys and exercise boys are scarce at Churchill Downs this spring, and in some of the stables that are in training one boy does all the ridding.

Lee Christy has four horses at the Downs that he is training for W. A. Hughes. He gave his Oaks candidate. La Toupee, a stiff gallop yesterday. Star Venus sprinted with her for a quarter, but Christy says she has no business with La Toupee, when it comes to going a route.

"That is the reason I declared the daughter of Star Shoot out of the Oaks," said he. "I think I have a nice chance to win the filly race with La Toupee. If it had been six or seven furlongs I would have taken a chance with Star Venus." Christy looks for Mrs. Sewall to be a useful mare this year and he is trying hard to get Great Pirate to the races again. The old horse, however, pulls up lame after every stiff gallop.

In a trial of a day or two ago. Waldo ran as if he fancied the heavy going and this pleased his local admirers very much, as they are now sure the condition of the track on Derby day will make no difference—to him. One thing which has caught the eye of the railbirds is that the son of Planudes seems to thrive under all the hard work given him. He looks stout and lusty and seems to hold his flesh as well as any horse in training here.

Judge Charles F. Price Writes Entertaining History of Racing at Famous Louisville Course.

Louisville, Ky., April 16.—A brochure, with letters embossed in black and a horse's head printed in a delicate shade of green on its buff cover, has been issued by the New Louisville Jockey Club and will be warmly received by horsemen everywhere. The booklet, from an artistle standpoint, is a thing of beauty. Typographically, it is perfection itself. From the viewpoint of contents, it contains a terse history of famous Louisville race courses, written and compiled by that lover of horses and racing expert. Charles F. Price, presiding judge at the historic Churchill Downs. The little volume will be highly prized by horse lovers and everybody interested in racing. Its life seems destined to be anything but transitory, as the information it contains is so accurately and entertainingly written and presented that the book will find a welcome in libaries numbered only by the extent of the edition.

The brochure is illustrated with etchings of famous race horses that have displayed their quality in contests for rich stakes; with reproductions of famous programs, or rather programs that became notable after the horses whose names were on the cards had developed into racers that set the country talking and made turf history.

In the introduction, Judge Price has written a beautiful eulogy of the horse and cites authorities showing that horses were raced over thirty centuries ago. —"Fourteen centuries before the Christian erahorses were raced at the Olympian games in Greece—and in the three thousand and more years that have elapsed they have been raced in every land and in every clime. England, however, is entitled to the credit of first improving the breed of the running horse—in fostering the turf," says the writer.

and in the three thousand and more years that have elapsed they have been raced in every land and in every clime. England, however, is entitled to the credit of first improving the breed of the running horse—in fostering the turf," says the writer.

Following the preface in the fore part of the book, comes a brief account of the early days of Louisville racing. Here the reader is informed that racing was first seen in Kentucky 150 years ago. "As early as 1783, the reader learns, races were run on what is now Market street and afterward there was a race track at the foot of Sixteenth street." Where horses were fore ourses.
